

Ask the Angels

Your eyes tell me surely, or is it a mistake
You're starting to confuse me with your mixed up kind of ways
One day you hold me, next day you are cold
The voices deep in side me tell me, baby please be strong

Pre Chorus

How do we go on like this, when you keep playin games
How do I control myself, how can I put out these flames

Chorus

So I ask the angels to share the secret in your eyes,
So I ask the angels if my hearts been telling lies
So I ask the angels to help me hide my pain
So I ask the angels why you're pushing me away,
Pushin me away

You take what you're feelin and drown it deep inside
But on your own around me I see the magic in your eyes
Don't try to fight it, don't hide away
Don't treat me like a secret, don't turn the other way

Pre Chorus

Chorus

Instrumental

Bridge

You can't read my feelings, you don't know how much you take
You don't seem to notice how I'm hurting more each day
I try to fight it, may be I should walk away
I can't seem to hide it, the pain is here to stay

Half Chorus

So I ask the angels to help me hide my pain
So I ask the angels why you're pushing me away,
Pushin me away
