

See the Day Through

Some might say I am a stronger lady
To walk away sometimes you drive me crazy
But each day I still find new ways to love you

Here I am somewhere out in limbo
Without you my heart beats frail and nimble
You're my air, I should find the strength to tell you

Pre Chorus

My heart can't change all these feeling for you
I'm through with fighting the right thing to do
So I'm living life by your rules

Chorus

Every Road I've travelled has bought me back to you
How do I get through tomorrow when all I need is you
Just to see the day through
Just to see the day through

Days go by each day I'm growing older
You'd think by now, I'd feel a little stronger
Truth be told, it just gets harder every day
