

What Do You Do

Well I sit and I dine with my latest find
Hopeful eyes are staring back at me
But I am living a lie, I'm so lost inside
And I can't find the words to describe all this pain

Chorus

What do you do when your heart won't work
Who do you tell
What do you take
What do you do when your heart just breaks
How do you live
How do you live

Well I walk down the road, now a single girl
A single girl with her heart in her hands
I've got no fear in me, got a heart full of pride
Got a broken dream but I just won't run and hide

Chorus

Well it is only love and will eventually fade
Tell the butterflies now not to come out to play
See the sun is going down behind a crying blue sky
Watch the pain in my eyes turn a warm day into ice, warm day, warm day into ice
