

You're Still the Last Thing on My Mind

Here's to the guy I'd spend the rest of my life
What do you think about before you sleep each night?
How do u feel when I'm a million miles away?
Do u even wonder how I'm feelin, or if I've changed?

What do you think about the rest of our lives?
And how many times does your memory hide my name?
And how many times does your heart block out my face?
Not a day goes by when I don't think of our mistakes

Chorus

Coz even though the winds have changed, I still feel the same
How do you dream? When I can't sleep without you by my side
And even though these years have gone by each night you re the last thing on my mind, you're still, the last thing on my mind

How do you feel when your girlfriend calls your name?
And does it give you butterflies or have they flown away?
And does she have kindest touch and call you by pet names?
Coz I did all that and loved u more than she could ever try

What does your heart think when u take her by the hand?
And do u think that second best will ever feel as grand?
You think that u can live your life and block out your regret
It's easy to pretend, I tried, it's harder to forget

Chorus

Bridge

Pretend you were always calm with me and never made me feel afraid,
Pretend I never ran away or found another guy
Pretend my life has not been, riddled with regret
If God forgives then why can't we, we've made some bad mistakes
